THERE WILL BE SOMETHING SENSATIONAL.

There promises to be something sensational disclosed at the Republican rally in the Weber Stake academy hall this evening. The Brewer people will be challenged from the platform to refute certain charges which will be made, and in order that they may be there to defend themselves, notice is served on Brewer and the "inner circle" of the city council that they will be the subject of a severe accusation, which was brought to the attention of the Republican central committee within the last few days, and verified by a careful investigation of the city records.

THE MEN WHO ARE WEARING MASKS.

Strange that the men who are going about prating so much about their superior honesty have so far in this campaign been the only men to stoop to the low tricks of the ward heeler. Not only that, but we are reliably informed they are gathering a "slush fund" to be distributed a few days before election in that part of the city to which they have made repeated references in their campaign literature. How deep is the honesty which allows these men to parade as honest men and at the same time plan a campaign to corrupt the electorate of this city by the use of money?

We serve warning now, that some of these "honest" men, more than honest men will have the masks torn from their faces, if they persist in the work they are now attempting.

AN EYE FOR AN EYE AND A TOOTH FOR A TOOTH.

A subscriber asks, "Who struck the first blow?" When Mr. Smurthwaite made his open charges in the Democratic city convention against the Republican candidate, he as head of the Brewer forces, struck the first blow and by so doing invited a counter-attack. And any man with an ounce of rich red blood in his make-up would have done as did William Glasmann—strike back, and strike with all his might.

When Charles Smurthwaite, as spokesman for the Brewer gang, assailed Wm. Glasmann's honor and integrity, just that moment the honor and integrity of Alex. Brewer was made an issue in the campaign. It is an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth, as under the old Mosaic law, the man who starts the conflict must be sure he can stand the ordeal. After the fight has started, is no time to feel aggrieved—the man who starts it has no grievance, even though he loses both an eye and a tooth.

For Sore Throat, Sudden Cold and Coughs a remedy has been discovered so powerful to cure as Perry Davis' Painkiller. As a Liniment it has no equal in curing Rheumatism or Neuralgia, burns and bruises, and wounds of every description. It is the cheapest and best remedy offered to the public. Only 30c. for a big bottle. There are other sizes also, 25c. and 50c.

BUSINESS OUTLOOK CONTINUES GOOD.

Henry Clews sees no serious trouble ahead in the business world. Commercial industrial conditions at home are generally favorable, he says, and there is a strong undertone of confidence. Business activity is general, and the prevalent opinion is that we are in for a period of continuous growth and activity. Some modification, however, is necessary of the extravagant optimism which characterized last summer. The feeling of the elation following settlement of the tariff has somewhat subsided and is being succeeded by apprehension in some quarters that the maximum and minimum clauses of the new bill may cause serious international friction unless handled with great care by President Taft. As our gifted President is fortunately endowed with a high degree of tactfulness, it is probable that we shall escape serious difficulties, but this uncertainty will not be removed until next spring when the objectionable clauses go into effect. Another unquestionable detriment has been the injury to the cotton crop, which cannot but impair the prosperity of the South. Many farmers will make handsome profits on their crops, while others will be more or less impoverished by failure and manufacturing interests and consumers will be more or less disconcerted at the abnormally high price which that staple now commands. Everyone is willing that the Southern grower should have a good profit for his product, but above all it is desirable that such profits should be well distributed. In the interior there is a more optimistic tone than in the cities of the Atlantic seaboard. This is, of course, due to the remarkably rapid development of our national resources; something not always sufficiently realized at Eastern financial centers, which are naturally the most sensitive to financial strain and impending difficulties. It may be necessary to indulge in periods of caution in the conduct of our business affairs, but in the long run the pessimist and the obstructionist are sure to be left behind in this favored country.

BREWER PEOPLE DO NOT LIKE REPUBLICANISM.

The Brewer people refer to the tariff in their campaign drizzle of this morning. It would be well for them to study the tariff with care. It might take them out of the present slough of despond by placing them in the party that has lifted this country to a firm foundation.

By the way, why is this campaign a test of strength between Republicans and Democrats and why did the Brewer people elect to call themselves Democrats? If the contest does not involve national politics, why did not the Brewer people name their organization the Charley Smurthwaite party and thus serve notice that, if by chance they should win, the national party could not point to Ogden as a sign of anti-Republicanism. A national party is made great by each unit of that party acquiring strength. A chain is no stronger than its weakest link, and if the ties of the country are to be turned over to Democracy, the Republican cause as a consequence must be weakened.

Now, as to tariff, which the Brewer people seem to value lightly, has any member of the Brewer gang studied the commercial reports of the Manufacturers' Record which show that the Payne bill has stimulated industries in all parts of the country, particularly in the South. Plans have been made for the addition to the southern textile equipment of $34,428 spindles and 16,458 looms, representing approximately an investment of $21,000,000. Of the total, 176,336 spindles and 3,678 looms representing an investment of about $4,408,000 are the embodiment of the plans made during the third quarter of the year, which in scope did not equal those of either the first or the second quarter. The addition of spindles and looms to established mills continues to be the predominating feature of the growth of southern cotton manufacturing facilities, for, of the total contemplated investment in the third quarter of the year, about $2,600,000 represent 132,336 spindles and 1,878 looms to be added to existing mills, and about $1,825,000 represents 73,000 spindles and 1,800 looms in new mills.

Among the important industrial announcements of the week are the following: Clinchfield Coal corporation, Dante, Va., has begun the development of its Dumps Creek property, to have an initial annual capacity of 1,000,000 tons of coal. G. B. Holder, of Rome, Ga., and Atlanta capitalists will form a $200,000 company to build a cotton oil mill and fertilizer factory at Rome. Chattanooga Cotton Oil Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., is being organized with $75,000 capital to install an oil mill. Central Cypress Co., Alexandria, La., was incorporated with a capital of $50,000. Graham Hosiery mills, Suffolk, Va., was incorporated with a capital of $13,000. Coleman Compress company, Coleman, Tex., was incorporated with a capital of $40,000. New River Colliers Co., Sun, W. Va., decided to develop additional mines, build tipplers, construct power plants and make other improvements at Eccles, W. Va. Kentucky Electric Co., Louisville, Ky., announced plans for proposed extensions and improvements to cost $400,000. Armour Fertilizer works, Chicago, Ill., purchased Tennessee Chemical Co. plant at Nashville, Tenn., Elberton, Ga., and other cities, besides phosphate rock interests in Tennessee; price reported as $1,750,000. Cheek-Neal Coffee Co., Nashville, Tenn., decided to erect a $30,000 fire-proof building and install coffee roasting equipment at Jacksonville, Fla. Black Warrior Coal and Coke Co., Philadelphia, is preparing to develop its coal, iron and oil lands in Tennessee, and to build furnaces in Alabama; owns 25,000 acres and has contracted for 60,000 acres with three operating coal mines. Memphis, Tenn., incorporated by representatives of prominent railway companies to provide terminal facilities and a union station, an expenditure of from $2,000,000 to $3,000,000 being contemplated. Robert L. Steels, of Rockingham, N. C., C. M. Burns and others of Wadesboro, N. C., plan the organization of a $300,000 company to build a cotton mill at Wadesboro. Clyde Steamship Co., New York, announced that plans and specifications are being prepared for its proposed improvements at Jacksonville, Fla.; about $750,000 will be expended. A $500,000 company organized at Houston, Tex., to build a plant for manufacturing nut locks.

DENOUNCES THE KILLING OF FERRER

Washington, Oct. 19.—Resolutions fiercely denouncing "the murder of Francisco Ferrer, the Spanish revolutionist," who was condemned by court martial and shot in Barcelona, were adopted at today's session of the executive council of the American Federation of Labor. Ferrer was referred to as a martyr.

"We, in our personal behalf, as well as in the name of America's workers and the whole people," the resolutions declare, "express our intense indignation, horror and strongest protest against the murder of Francisco Ferrer by direction of the Spanish government."

Taken in connection with the action of the supreme court of the District of Columbia in sentencing President Gompers, Secretary Morrison and John Mitchell of the federation to serve terms in jail for contempt of court, the concluding paragraph of the resolution is looked upon as significant.

It declares that "we take this occasion of the military murder of a man whose real offense was speaking the truth and teaching humanity to become more wise, more free and more liberty loving to remind the people of our country that the liberty of the citizens is only here when tried by jury, court for any alleged offense involving the lives of men."

The resolutions declare "the case of free speech, free press and free education has found in Ferrer another martyr, the more regrettable in civilization which boasts of no torture and medievalism in punishment."

Ferrer, it is declared, will take rank with all those who have done the greatest service for humanity.

"A noble company of martyrs and a cause which a man might well give his life," the resolutions continue, "did tyranny require it. Like Jefferson, Washington and Lincoln of our own country, he labored and taught and suffered that the people might have wisdom and be worthy of freedom."

Declaring that though Ferrer suffered the ultimate penalty of a shameful death at the hands of those who rule in the doctrine of the "divine right of kings," the resolutions continue that the sacrifice was not in vain.

In its preamble to the resolutions, the council says the execution of Professor Ferrer has aroused the strongest indignation of all just liberty-loving and broad-minded men of the civilized world.

Among other matters considered was a brief resume by President Gompers on his observations regarding labor conditions abroad.

The resolutions adopted from the third convention of the West Virginia Federation of Labor, now in session in Charleston, expressing the hope that the efforts of the federations in behalf of the preservation of the right of free speech and free press may be crowned with success.

It was decided that an appeal or financial assistance in behalf of the wage earners now on strike in Sweden should be made to all aged labor, mayor should be something more than one of the boys.

The man for mayor, if he has already served as mayor, should stand on his record.

We advised a certain Brewer reformer, a few days ago, to quietly make an investigation and to report back to us. He has made no report. Evidently he has struck a snag. What is wrong, Mr. Reformer? Have you learned that the Brewer following is not Simon-pure?

The man for mayor is the man whose record proves his ability to cut down city expenses, while carrying on improvements; whose efforts have been in the direction of saving the city from accumulating debts, so that at no time in the future shall the heavy hand of taxation be allowed to levy upon the poor man's or the widow's home.

FINE CONCERT AT THE TABERNACLE

Great interest is being manifested in the recital which will be given in the Tabernacle tomorrow evening and the people of the city are looking forward to a musical treat. Splendid reports have come up from Salt Lake City during the past week of the concert given in that city by the three artists scheduled to appear here.

Willard Weihe's last appearance, it will be remembered, was just previous to the time when the Ogden Tabernacle choir had the honor of singing at the Irrigation Congress in Sacramento, and since that time he has been kept busy as conductor of the Orpheum Orchestra in Salt Lake City, an organization which is conceded to be one of the very best in America of its size and it has reached that standard through Mr. Weihe's efficient leadership. As a soloist he ranks as one of the best ever heard in the West.

It has also been some time since John J. McClellan the eminent organist has been heard in this city. Mr. McClellan is recognized as being one of the foremost organists in America today; that fact being attested by the numerous invitations which he has received to officiate at the installation of pipe organs in different cities of the West. The organ recital given by him almost daily in the Salt Lake Tabernacle in which the compositions of the masters are played, as well as some of his own, which are just as pleasing to the general public as becoming a feature of every tourist's visit to the West.

Alfred Best, the noted Utah tenor, will doubtless be greeted at his first appearance in our city by an audience which will attest to him the interest which Ogden people always have in the talented sons of our home state, and when he goes back to the old country to continue his musical work he will carry that memory with him to other local artists who are there.

The management of the concert are unhesitating in the statement that this will be one of the very best recitals ever given in our city either by local or foreign artists.

FIVE THOUSAND CONDEMN KING FOR FERRER'S DEATH

New York, Oct. 19.—Five thousand men and women met tonight in Carnegie hall and condemned King Alfonso and the others whom they held responsible for the death of Francisco Ferrer.

The echo of that shot which shook down every throne in Christendom," declared Charles Edward Russell, magazine writer and chairman of the meeting.

Resolutions were adopted declaring "in the light of all known facts which will attest to him the interest which Ogden people always have in the talented sons of our home state, and when he goes back to the old country to continue his musical work he will carry that memory with him to other local artists who are there."

"We denounce the murder of Ferrer," the resolutions continued, "and we trust that his memory will stimulate our Spanish brothers to increase efforts to overthrow oppression."

"We further feel deep humiliation at our government's maintenance of diplomatic relations with the Russian and Spanish governments which have alike proved themselves outside the pale of civilization."

GOETHE LEAGUE CALLS EXECUTION PLAIN MURDER

Berlin, Oct. 19.—The Berlin branch of the Goethe league, which is composed of leading literary and university men, this evening adopted resolutions declaring that Professor Ferrer's execution was a murder committed under the forms of law and an insult to European civilization.

Women, chiefly socialists, held a huge indignation meeting tonight. The police had to close the doors to prevent the overcrowding of the building. Resolutions adopted declared that the execution of Ferrer was "murder masquerading in the cloak of justice."

Anarchists to the number of 1,000 also met to protest against the "murder of our comrade, Ferrer." The police maintained a close watch at the meeting, but did not interfere.

It is too early to predict, explained professor Garriott today, whether the storm would veer to the northwest and strike the coast of the Gulf of Mexico.

other prominent members of the organization.

Refusing to be drawn into any controversy with Hearst, who at first accepted the nomination as a passive candidate, heading the same ticket as Bannard, but who last night turned against the Republican nominee and attacked him bitterly, Mr. Bannard said:

"I am not spending my time abusing other candidates, but instead I am touching on different phases of city life."

He refused absolutely to comment on Hearst's attack.

Gaynor is still the favorite in the betting, although money for election betting seems scarce this year or else those who wager on the results of election are holding off for the situation to clear up. At the Hoffman House, today, where many of the election wagers are posted, it was said that no prevailing orders have developed. There are wagers, however, $2,000 to $1,500 or four to three that Bannard would be last and $2,000 was bet against $1,000 on Gaynor against the field.
